Broad Purpose

The College Counsellor will actively support and contribute to the Catholic Identity and Salesian ethos, mission, and vision of Xavier College and will adhere to the guiding principles of the Living, Learning Leading Framework which outlines CESA key capabilities, skills, knowledge and dispositions that enable young people to contribute to society and enjoy meaningful and spiritually enriched lives.

RUAH is the Hebrew word for Breath of God – this will translate as Respect; Understanding: Affection and Humour. These are guiding principles that are intrinsic to our treatment of self and each other. They complement the Salesian Charter of:

- A Home that welcomes
- A Parish that evangelises
- · A School that prepares for life
- A Playground where friends meet and enjoy themselves

Under broad direction, the College Counsellor supports leadership in determining priorities and practices, through the application of specialist professional knowledge, skills and expertise to develop operational strategies and policy to enhance student safety and wellbeing and facilitate successful learning.

The College Counsellor is a qualified professional, works in consultation with leaders, to implement and deliver an effective professional counselling service within the College community to support the emotional, social and learning development needs of students. The College Counsellor forms an important part in leading and providing professional support services to students within CESA.

Key Responsibilities

- Undertake complex professional activities including research involving the selection and application, based on professional judgement, of new and existing techniques and methodologies requiring the exercise of professional independence combined with high levels of competence.
- Lead and manage the counselling services including preparing and maintaining accurate case notes, files and reports on counselling and associated interventions to fulfil professional obligations, noting that all information and documentation is stored securely and confidentially and remains the property of the College and must be fully available to authorised personnel at all times.
- Identify policies and procedures requiring review or re-development and define all relevant issues to ensure currency and best practice is delivered.
- Provide subject matter expertise and/or policy advice across a range of programs or activities undertaken by the College, formulate policies and provide specialist advice on policy formulation to leadership.
- Undertake counselling with students to address complex individual, peer group, social and emotional concerns and monitor identified trends, patterns, and areas of concern within the school and broader community. Where appropriate, notify, liaise and advise parents of their child's educational and social activities to enhance learning outcomes.
- Facilitate and/or provide specialist individual and small group counselling for high needs students (and others), as applicable, relating to trauma, grief, loss, anger management and other needs.
- Liaise and work with CEO Allied Health professionals and outside counselling and associated service agencies and promote specialised counselling services and programs to the wider College community.
- As authorised, negotiate and facilitate the service provision of specialist external counselling and associated services not available in-house, and maintain all relevant documentation, records etc.
- Assist and support teachers in their teaching strategy for health-related topics such as student wellbeing and resilience and develop appropriate resources and activities.
- In collaboration with educators, develop, implement and lead specialist orientation programs particularly with the key transition years.
- In conjunction with leadership, assist in the development of pastoral care programs and similar initiatives within the College, as appropriate.
- Provide correspondence, reports etc as required for the employer, families, mental health practitioners and Government and community agencies, maintaining effective records at all times.
- Maintain confidentiality as required, being cognisant of the College's legal and moral duty of care.
- Maintain appropriate, continuous professional knowledge by attending professional development and actively participating in relevant network/professional groups.
- Actively and positively engage in College programs, activities, events, required training and regular professional reviews.
- Undertake other duties as required by the Principal (or delegate).
